I clipped the inclosed dispatch from your paper of yesterday. I am pained to see the maner in which your correspondent goes out of the way to give the Freedmen's Bureau a kick. I have but two agents in the entire State of Kentucky, and they have devoted their energies chiefly to closing no freedmen's eamps and placing the inneuployed at work.

I have hesitated about the establishment of agencies in Kentucky until the authorities at Washington should definitely decide upon the vixed question of "Kentucky affairs." I believe I could go into your State and restore tranquillity if your good people would all put their shoulders to the wheel and follow after the things that make for peace.

I wish you would correct the impression that the telegram would naturally create in the country, that Kentucky is suffering from an overdose of the Freedmen's Burean.

The representations to the New York News in regard to General Fisk do that gentlem in ligitate. As Commissioner of the Fre-dimen's Bureau, he has instructions from General Howard, based up u the law of Congress, he which his netterns are to be controlled, and we state a fact when we say that he has not observed these instructions to the full extent they imply, otherwise the condition of affairs in Tennessee and North Atabama would have been a good deal worse than we find it to-day. We are free to easy that many another man might have been out in the position held by General Fisk who would have made the operations of the Bureau been set had as they have been in Lonislaus. He became very disorderly, and was put out of the Executive Mansion. When about fifty feet from the door he turned and drew a revolver on the officer, when the guard made a lunge at him with his lawonet, and he was captured and taken before Justice Water, who fined him the enormous sum of $2,000 for carrying concealed weapons. Having no money, he was committed. He gave his name as Robbins Summer, and said he was a brother of Gen. Summer. He comes from Alexandria, and his name is probably an allas.

WITHDRAWAL & MARTIAL LAW URON KIN TUCKY .- The President by proclamation has o dered that martial law shall no longer exist it

The proclamation of the 5th of July, 1864 b But what mode of proving their sincerity i the late President Lincoln, cetablished martis law in Kentucky and su pended the writ of leemed necessary to prove it? Two years abeas corpus, the enspension to remain in three? four? No doubt many of the R pu liforce till otherwise ordered by the proper au cans would demand ten, some probaby tifteen thority. The proclamation of the 13th inst , it or twenty, and the radicals a life-time and a litwill be observed, modifies that of July 5, 1 will, tle more. These classes would have the resto only in reference to martial law, leaving the ration of the Union postponed to some future suspension of the writ of habene corpus nnand indefinite period; they can't bear to con-template a condition of national harmony and This action on the part of the national Execuorder as about to exist as in the deeply-laitent-live restores the laws of Kentucky to their aned past. They perhaps think that they would premacy, except in so far as the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus is concerned, and makes of course a decided difference in the premine power and the operations of law in feel, that, when they can no longer use their breath for the inciting of commotion, they this State. It makes a change in the authority of the Commander of the Department, and corresponding change in the duties and responalbilities of the Governor, Judges, and all other officers of the State. have it just as soon as the people of the South. They will of course "mark, learn, and in wardly digest" and "govern themselves accord-

The slave code of Kentucky will reappear up on the stage, for a brief period only, however, and during that period its operations will be considerably modified, we suppose, by the laws of Congress freeing negro soldiers and their families. This law has been pronounced nuintional by a Kentucky court, and thence will arise another legal struggle. The disciples of Coke and Blackstone will reap a rich harvest, we suspect from the "situation" in Kentucky during the next few months. The "perfection of reason" will be found, we apprehend, in a very respectable muddle. Well, 'tis an ill wind that blows nobody any good.

Meanwhile American citizens of African seent may perhaps soulf something in the air, and make tolerable time, it is possible, northwardly. We advise them, however, to remain where they are. The bottom will fall out of this tub within a very few months at furthest by the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment by se-fourths of the States, abolishing slaver throughout the country—an event as certain to take place as any future one can be, and within a very brief period. Only four more States are of the organic law of the land. Three of these are Iowa, California, and Oregon, which will ratify the amendment as soon as their respective Legislatures shall meet. The negroes Ecnineky have, therefore, only to wait a few months to have this vexed onestion definitely nd forever set at rest. That will be a relief both to whites and blacks. The great dial of freedom cannot now be turned back by any hu man power, and any attempt to do it will be nugatory and disastrous, a waste of time and labor and strength. We advise the colored people of Kentucky, therefore, to take counsel of President Johnson, and go to work, to remain at home, to be falthful, nd thereby make themselves worthy of the boon which they will so soon receive without ring an inch. To flee from their home; under the supposition that they will not otherwice become free, will only entail miseries apor them across the Ohio, and make their condition Amendment will secure liberty to them all with in a brief period right where they are. There is no power that can prevent it.

We trust our citizens will accommodate them elves with grace to the change which is inevitable. Any severity toward negroes, yet technically res, resulting from the enforcement of the laws of the State, will be unwise and impolitic and infact evils and a stigma upon the State. The revocation of martial law by the Presi dent is undoubtedly in accordance with public timent both in and out of the State. Martial law in time of peace is always distasteful to the American people, and is, beyond question, contrary to the spirit and genins of their itntions. The action of Mr. Johnson in this matter shows how largely he his nature and principles are imbued by this nins. He of course understands the course cations which exist in this State, and which and continue to exist for a few more months and he has delayed action, we think, in respec to martial law here thus far, because he could see no way by which these complications could be resolved otherwise than by the supreme authority of the Government exercised through now so near at hand when the Constitutions Amendment will settle the whole question of clavery in Kentucky that he has determined t permit martial law no longer to exist within bmits. The time draws rapidly near when the whole civil machinery of every State in the Union will be completely in order and in perfect operation, when the military shall one more be everywhere enbordinate to the civil power, with entire safety to the peace and har mony of the country and to the furtherance o the great ends of civil society and good government.

The radicals among us have been sorel tried for some time past by the reported re marks and the apprehended action of President Johnson. They have not had the courage to oppose and denounce and threaten him outright, but they have hinted their fears, lati mated their dissatisfaction, insinnated their doubte of his fidelity to them and their wishes and their doctrines. They have been the unconject set of fellows in the world. The dov of peace has found no rest in their souls. Only the boding owi has perched there.

Our poor radicals have insisted that military law must be continued as a necessity, and that the policy of keeping negro soldiers in Kennion the population of that State unless by a the President has realized their dismal forebodby annulling martial law, and, in two or if we are mistaken, if the Tennessecans want thee days, he will, we have reason to think, order the disbanding of the negro troops in the State or their withdrawal from it so as to leave colored voting, let them have it. We haven't any objection, and it would make no difference none except the garrisons of a couple of small If we had. Every State should ordain for itself forts. The time of tribulation has come to the who shall vote and who shall not. It a State licals, and they cannot see the end of it even from the tall peaks of their own vanity. Martial law has never done any good in Ken tucky. Its operation has been all evil, and every enlightened patriot rejoices that it has vanished like an ill-looking ghost from amo us. The civil authority is strong enough here to protect itself and the people, and it has been for some months. Old-fashioned governmen is enough in such times as these for all prope purposes. And we heartfly congratulate the cople of the State that they are no longer to be annoyed by a negro soldiery. The annoy ance has been bitterly felt by thousands, for very many of the black soldiers have been iawless, insolent, and outrageous, straying of wherever they pleased, and stealing, robbing destroying, and murdering at will. Taey prob ably would not be guilty of such atrocities un der better officers, but the right kind of men are but seldom willing to act as officers of negro troops. Certainly these troops, so far as Kentucky is concerned, have never done the least good to anybody except a political good to the enemies of the Government.

The man who was shot and killed by a negro guard on Friday evening has not been identified. Coroner Glll held an inquest upon the body, and from the testimony heard it seems pretty well authenticated that the guard, Sam'i Waltry, of the 108th United States colored intantry, was not fully justified in the killing. He was guarding the building used as a medical ot, and his orders were to permit no one to pass that point after night, but not to fire his piece without thrice commanding hait. It is said the guard either did not order the deceased to halt before ehepting, or gave the command too ir audibly. We trust the affair will be proerly investigated, and some action taken by the so ead an occurrence. The Coroner requests us to say that the dead body will be kept in the vault of the Western Cemetery until 2 o'clock P. M. to-day.

Henderson, Kr., July 24. 18sif.

To those whom it way concern:

I wish to state to the public for their benefit that I have suitered for the last ten years wish cancer, and have consulted several physicians, and have used various remedies, sil to no effect. I applied to Dr. Couden, of Terre Haur. Ind., in March, who has entirely cursed me. I have been a citizen of Henderson for many years.

Dr. W. G. Couden is undoubledly a benefactor to those who may be so unfortunate as to be sillicted with encer. These pests have been considered incurable. Dr. C. has cared me. and I know of many other cases who have been relieved by his treatment. The special treatment of Dr. C. is attended with no pain whatever. Patients of any fortime are of course willing to undergo treatment, even if it is very paintal, and it is common for his patients to make the remark that they have received the assurance of no painful treatment in former cases, and nothwithstanding a physician's promise they do not quite hope to escape pain. Without exception they express their great surprise and gratification at having passed through the Ductor's hards literally without pain and with perfect cure. The Doctor says there are cases of Cancer which are incurable, as of every other disease; and those none but a mountebank would procks to master. Yet it is a fact which may be demonstrated to the conviction of the most which he has not effected. I would also say to those suffering from Cancer, that can be helped at all, that Dr. C. is in possession of the proper CIRCUS.-The New York Champs Eiysees Cir-Monday morning. JACKSON, MISS., Oct. 12. General Humphrey is certainly elected Go ernor of Mississippi. There are a few counties hear from yet, but they will give him a ma ority. His majority has decreased by votes cm the east, but he will get at least three thor and majority in the State. The following State flicers are certainly elected : Swan, Auditor Rehols, Treasurer: Brongher, Secretary of State: Hooker, Attorney-General; West, Peyton Rev. nolds, and Harrison to Congress. Great satisfaction is manifested among the pardening General Humphrey. A Government wagon train was attacked by a band of gnerrillas last evening in the neighporbood of Belton's Depot, in this county. one teamster killed, and four mules stolen. The Legislature meets on the 15th inst. To the Associated Press.

Washington, October 13 The Wertz Military Commission reassembled The Wertz Military Commission reassembled his morning.

Mr. Schade read two letters from the lettersook of Captain Wertz. One of the letters, slated December, 1884, is addressed to Assistant Quartermaster Neely, and says that he (Wertz) has received eighteen packages of clothing for Federal prisoners, including blankets, shoes, ands, socks, and shirts, and that he would proceed to distribute them without delay. The other letter, dated January 20, 1865, was adtressed to Assistant Adjustant Thomas, asking that the guard to the escort gathering wood be hat the guard to the escort gathering wood be Berj F. Lilly, of Pennsylvania, testified that he was admitting clerk to Wertz's office, and his basiness was, when prisoners arrived, to make cut description rolls. He was also wardmaster, having one hundred and fitty men and sixteen nurses under his charge. The clothes was taken from the dead and sold by onr own men. Captain Wertz made an ineffectual effort to impress 560 slaves for the purpose of enlarging the stockade, and our own men relused to work for fear of compressing themselves.

Among the other things, witness said that Wertz condemned rice and corn-bread, remarking that he would not feed his negroes on the coin, and the men who sent corn-meal to An dersonville should be cont-martialed, as they were robbing their own government. Wertz was sick during Angust and off and on in July.
